

Chapter 6: Practice using complementary infinitives.

Directions: Each Latin sentence has in parentheses an English phrase. Provide the correct Latin words for the English in parentheses.

Example:

Quintus (orders Horatia to help).

Answer: iubet Horatiam iuvare.

1. (You want to return) ad casam.
2. (They are deciding to go) ad casam.
3. (You all ought to write) litteras.
4. magister (orders the girls and boys to sit).
5. pueri (ought to work diligently).
6. Flaccus (goes to the forum to buy) olivas.

7. Quintus ludum (ought to enter).

8. Scintilla (to lead the girls) ad fontem constituit.

9. Coloni in agro (do not want to work).

10. magister (to shout) amat.

11. magister fabulam (to tell) constituit.

12. cibum (we want to eat).

13. Argus in horto (to sleep) cupit.

14. cibum et aquam in casā (you ought to put).

15. Quintus (to hurry to the field) constituit.

.